Application for SLA or SCA Membership

I hereby apply for SLA or SCA membership to the National Residential Appraisers Institute and Certify that I meet ONE (Check off the option under which you qualify) of the following qualifications

1. I am currently a member in good standing with N.R.A.I. and hold the GSA (Graduate Senior Appraiser) professional designation

To receive the SLA or SCA designation under this option, you must have:

- a. A minimum of 3 years experience in real estate and/or appraisal,
b. Completed all necessary requirements required by your state to obtain license or certification status,
c. A copy of your license/certification attached to this application
d. A $35 processing fee to transfer your designation from GSA or SLA or SCA included with this application.

2. I am NOT current member of N.R.A.I. and have obtained my state license and/or certification in appraising (either Residential or General).

To receive the SLA or SCA designation under this option, you must have:

- a. Acquired a minimum of 2000 hours in real estate appraising,
b. A copy of your state license/certification attached to this application
c. A $105 fee must be included, which covers your first year's dues of $70 and a one time processing fee of $35 for your new membership,
d. A sample residential URAR form report for demonstration purposes attached.
e. So that N.R.A.I. can show your highest level of qualification, please include a sample Small Residential Income Report form and a Condominium or ERC Report form.

Once this application is reviewed and approved by the Admissions Committee, you will receive a membership package with membership certificate, membership card and various forms for your use as a designated member. Your signature on this application also indicates that you have read and understand the "Code of Ethics" of the National Residential Appraisers Institute and agree to abide by same.  Please Note All designated SLA or SCA members are required to comply with any state rules and regulations governing real estate appraisers including the Uniform Professional Standards of Appraisal Practice and Code of Ethics.
